

Fleet Diving Unit (Pacific) held a diving career familiarization day two weeks ago in the Naden Athletic Centre pool, followed by an informal tour and information session of the integral departments. The day was open to all qualified CF divers interested in clearance diver trade to trial the equipment in a controlled environment.