nary Seaman to Lieutenant Commander in the Royal Canadian Navy and retired as Commanding Officer of Fleet Diving Unit Atlantic in 1995. He worked later as a postal clerk with Canada Post. Chuck's main passion in life, after family, was motorcycling and he was a member of Goldwing Road Riders Association. He was much travelled, including naval diving duties on ships sunk in the Falklands War as second in command of a Royal Navy Diving Unit while on exchange. Chuck was an avid hiker, swimmer, photographer and had a great love for his dogs, Jasper, Maxi and Toby. He also had a great love for his lakeside property. Chuck is survived by his wife, Beverly; sons, Danon and Gavin of Halifax and their mother, Beth (Robbie) Horne; brother, Tom (Marcia) of Waterloo, Ont.; sister, Mavis (Tom) Bethune of Prince George, B.C.; lifetime friend, Bryan Crook; several nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his mother, Dorothy. Cremation has taken place. A Celebration of Chuck's Life will be held on Saturday, November 12 from 2-4 p.m. in Atlantic Funeral Home Family Reception Centre, 771 Main St., Dartmouth. Interment will follow in Dartmouth Memorial Gardens. Donations in memory may be made to Heart and Stroke Foundation of Nova Scotia. On-line condolences may be made by visiting:
