

EISNER, Andrew Nelson (OMM CD) — Chester Basin, passed away March 1, 2013, in South Shore Regional Hospital, Bridgewater. Nelson was born in Bridgewater in 1930, the son of the late Dewey and Ellen Eisner. He served in the Army Reserve W.N.S.R. as a boy during the Second World War, then two years in the Naval Reserve followed by 25 years RCN as a diver. In his earlier years he worked at the Halifax Ship Yards, Chappels Tire and Dunlop Tire as a tire builder. He ended his working career with Michelin Tire as an industrial mechanic. He was a member of Clarke Lodge No. 61, Royal Canadian Legion No. 88, Chester Basin, Naval Divers Association and an Honorary member of the Chester Basin Volunteer Fire Department. He was predeceased by his daughter, Rebecca Ann. Nelson is survived by his wife, Joan; son, Theodore (Trudy); daughter, Marsha (Steve) Rogers; sisters, Audrey and Geraldine. There will be no visitation or service at Nelson's request. Arrangements are entrusted to Davis Funeral Home, Chester.