

FENN, Guy William — It is with heavy hearts that we announce the gentle and peaceful passing of our dear husband, father, grandfather and friend, Guy William Fenn, on March 18, 2011, in Palliative Care Unit of the VG Site, QEII, Halifax. Born October 8, 1932, in Qu'Appelle, Sask., Guy was a son of the late Guy Fenn and Margaret Weir. ■ FENN

Guy joined the Royal Canadian Navy in 1949 and in 1950 went to Korea as part of the crew of the HMCS Athabaskan. In 1952, he joined the Naval Diving Unit and later became a diving instructor with OCDU2, later known as Fleet Diving Unit Pacific. After serving 25 years, Guy retired in 1976 and went to work for the Bedford Institute of Oceanography, retiring in 1991. The highlight of his retirement years was spending time with his family and many friends at his home, and especially at his cottage on Fox Point Lake. He loved to putter around, make wine and share it with his loved ones. Everything Guy did, he did with a zest for life, with a heart full of love and laughter. Guy is survived by his loving and devoted wife, Jean (Steffen) Fenn; his children, Guy (Margaret) Fenn, British Columbia; Lorraine (Bill) Gould, Dartmouth; Rusty Fenn, British Columbia; Michael (Trina) Fenn, British Columbia; Wayne (Patty) Shattuck, Halifax, and Susan (Henry) Lopez, Halifax; grandchildren, Adam, Mitchell, Derek, Michael, Sydney, Katrina, Hunter, Melanie, Aislinn, Tyler; and great-grandchildren, Aiden, Deegan, Christian, Charlotte and Colin. He is also survived by his sister, Helen MacKinnon, Regina; and brothers, Orville, Edmonton; Gary, British Columbia; and several nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by brothers, Lloyd and Sid; sister, Ruth; and granddaughter, Jaime Lynn Shattuck. He was a member of the Canadian Naval Divers Association and the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 142, Fairview.
