

Wesley E. Nehring (January 25, 1935 - July 10, 2015)

Obituary

Wes Nehring, son of the late Ralph (1989) and Elizabeth (Schlitt) (2008), passed away peacefully on July 10 at the Royal Jubilee. He was strong, showing courage and dignity. He was also predeceased by brother Wilfred (2002). Wes is survived by his wife Sharon (Sammi) Watson, brother David, sister Olive, children Janice, Mitchell and Elaine (Almeida), three step children as well as several nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Wes joined the Canadian Navy in 1953 and retired from the Pacific Fleet Diving Unit (Petty Officer 1st Class) in 1977, after which he pursued commercial diving and fishing.

The family wishes to thank First Memorial Funeral Services and the staff at the Royal Jubilee Hospital for their professional and compassionate support. By request, there will be no memorial service. A gathering for family and friends to celebrate his life will be held in the Social Room at 3969 Shelbourne Street on Saturday, July 25 between 2:00 and 4:00. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to the Victoria SPCA.
